SNG Seminar Series
Presents
Plugging Technology
into Your Networking Efforts

What You Should Be Doing:

Do you have an efficient way of sharing your contact information with Gen Xs and Ys?
Do you have an efficient way of qualifying be attendees at your last event?
Do you have an efficient way of scheduling appointments?
And what does all this cost?

Technology discussed:

QR-Code-Generator.com
Microsoft Forms
Calendly

Paper and pencil/chisel and hammer work, but technology exists to make all the above more efficient. Having the ability to conduct business this way is not only relevant from a practical standpoint, but also to your existence in your profession.

This workshop will discuss methods of performing all the above and the cost of doing so

BONUS: DISCUSSION: Do you know how to efficiently increase your value of your connections on LinkedIn?
